

Subject Information

A Level English Literature

The aims of this course are to enable learners to develop their interest in and enjoyment of literature and literary studies as they: read widely and independently both set texts and others that they have selected for themselves; engage creatively with a substantial body of texts and ways of responding to them; develop and effectively apply their knowledge of literary analysis and evaluation in their own creative writing and explore the contexts of the texts they are reading and others' interpretations of them.

Topics studied:

- Shakespeare Poetry pre 1900
- Drama post-1900 Prose post-1900
- Close reading OR recreative writing piece with commentary.
- Comparative essay

Course structure:

- Drama and poetry pre-1900 (01) Marks 60 Duration 2 hour 30 mins Weighting 40% Closed text exam.
- Comparative and contextual study (02) Marks 60 Duration 2 hour 30 mins Weighting 40% Closed text exam.
- Literature post-1900 (03) Marks 40. 20% Non-exam assessment

Entry requirements:

Minimum GCSE English grade 6 (language and/or literature)

Location:

Cinderford Campus

This course prepares you for a career in:

A qualification in English literature will enable you to access a plethora of university degrees. Generally speaking, English literature is a subject well respected by potential universities owing to the numerous transferable skills it demonstrates. The subject can lead students on to a variety of degree-level subjects such as Journalism, Publishing, Editing, Teaching, not to mention opening up doors for those seeking a career in alternative, but connected, industries such as Law, Advertising and Media and Politics. The analytical and communicative skills associated with English Literature also apply well to areas of business, such as Public Relations.

To enquire about this course, email sixthform@denemagna.co.uk