

Year 12 A-Level History

The Tudors and Russia are taught by two different teachers so topics are taught concurrently.

	Autumn		Spring		Summer
Knowledge	Tudors: Henry Tudor's consolidation of power – government and establishing the dynasty Russia: The state of Russia before 1917; the 1917 revolutions	Tudors: Relationships with Scotland; society; economic developments Russia: Establishment of Bolshevik authority; end of WW1; Civil War	Tudors: Religion; Henry VIII's government Russia: Murder of the Romanovs; social conditions during Civil War; War Communism; NEP; Foreign Intervention	Tudors: Relationships with foreign powers; society; economy; religion Russia: Lenin's rule by 1924; Legacy; contenders for leadership; Stalin's rise to power	Tudors: Edward VI and royal authority; relationships with foreign powers; rebellion Russia: Five Year Plans; propaganda; foreign powers; collectivisation; industrialisation	Tudors: Mary I and her ministers; royal authority; relationships with foreign powers; religion Russia: The Arts; strengths and weaknesses of the Soviet Union; the Terror; culture and impacts; Russia during WW2
Skills	Exam skills – source analysis, extended writing, justified reasoning, balanced answers, interpretation work					Exam skills – source analysis, extended writing, justified reasoning, balanced answers, interpretation work Decisions made regarding coursework topic
Assessment	Selection of AQA exam questions					Selection of AQA exam questions Mock exams

Year 13 A-Level History

	Autumn		Spring		Summer
Knowledge	Tudors: Intellectual developments; Elizabeth I – Act of Settlement; social and religious issues  Russia: Revision  NEA: Planning and writing	Tudors: Relationships with foreign powers; government  Russia: Revision  NEA: Planning and writing	Tudors: Mary, Queen of Scots; change and continuity in the regions; her last years#  Russia: Revision  NEA: Planning and writing	Revision
Skills	Exam skills – source analysis, extended writing, justified reasoning, balanced answers, interpretation work
Assessment	Selection of AQA exam questions

