

DENE MAGNA ENGLISH- Curriculum Intent 2022-2023

Year 11 - Individual teachers will teach units in an order of their choosing to suit their individual groups in response to Y10 trials. Each class will have two main assessment points where the whole year will sit GCSE papers to prepare for summer exams.
Scheme of learning	Which materials and skills/content will be covered and why? INTENT	How is the SOL a progression of previous learning? IMPLEMENTATION	Which aspect of KS4 are we preparing students for? How are we building Cultural Capital? IMPACT
Revision Comp 1 Lit/Comp 2 Unseen Poetry	Revision of the most difficult elements of the Literature papers. Revision of both poetry elements at the same time.	Working memory - low stakes testing for incremental improvement of quotations, plot etc. Practice papers and Trials All AOs	Re-reading literature and other writing as a basis for making comparisons
Revision of Component 1/ 2 Language	Repeated focus on the question types to build marks	Timed questions/responses/modelling All AOs	Personalised feedback to ensure progression
Revision of Comp 2 Lit - Post-1914 and Pre-1914 texts	Revision of Component 2 Literature	Drawing on 19th century knowledge from revision of Comp 2 Lang paper to support AO3 in A Christmas Carol. All AOs	More working memory of quotations and greater depth of responses.
Bridging work for students who have selected A-level English Literature or Language and Literature.
Students study either English Language and Literature or English Literature in Key Stage 5. We follow the AQA Language and

DENE MAGNA ENGLISH- Curriculum Intent 2022-2023

Literature syllabus and the OCR English Literature syllabus.