

Summer bridging unit

It's important that you arrive to lessons in September with an understanding of your set texts.

Invest in an English Literature folder where you collate your notes, keep class work, as well as private study notes. Within this booklet, there are some compulsory and optional activities to complete over the summer so that you can start you're A-level English literature course with a good working knowledge of your course.

We look forward to meeting you in September! Mrs Meek and Mr Marden
